There are a number of areas in which volunteers are required. Below is a brief description of the areas which require the most help. The questions in this section do not need to be answered; they are included for your consideration and to help you decide if this type of volunteer work is right for you. You only need to check the boxes you are interested in volunteering for.

FOSTERING

Interested Not Interested

Foster homes are a critical part of our rescue program as we do not have a shelter facility.

Quite simply, without fosters we could not operate. Fostering is a serious commitment and we carefully screen each foster applicant to ensure they will provide a safe haven for our rescued dogs. We are looking for special homes that will provide not only food and shelter but also any rehabilitation, medical care (at rescue's expense), socialization and training required to help make these Bostons the best companions they can be. Fostering can be the most challenging, but is undoubtedly the most rewarding aspect of volunteering.

Do you appreciate the level of commitment and do you have the time required?

Do you understand that a foster dog may present challenges and are you willing to work through them?

Do you have an area in your home where a foster dog could be secluded in the event that there is a problem with other pets?

Will you respect and follow the advice and recommendations of your foster coordinator?

Is your entire family in agreement about fostering?

FUNDRAISING

Interested Not Interested

With vet bills constantly on the rise, rescue must fundraise continually. Fundraising team members may help through brainstorming new money-making ideas, soliciting donations, selling product, securing sponsorships, collecting pledges for our annual walkathon, etc. They may also help by working at special events. This might require you to travel to the location where the event is being held, work the hours you have signed up for, and help with setting up and clean-up afterward. A successful fundraising volunteer is able to interact directly with the public and promote our rescue group.

Are you comfortable asking for support?

Do you have a vehicle or other means of getting to/from fundraising events?

Are you available on weekends?

Do you enjoy working with the public?

Do you have a talent or skill (sewing/knitting, baking, woodworking, etc.) and are you willing to make items for raffles, craft shows, and other fundraising opportunities?

REFERENCE CHECKING

Interested Not Interested

All prospective adopters and new volunteers must provide personal references and a vet reference. Volunteers are needed to call and check out these references and report back to the appropriate rescue representative. Some of these calls take time and may incur long distance phone charges.

Do you feel comfortable calling people and inquiring about prospective adopters or volunteers?

Do you have a long distance calling plan?

Do you have an answering machine or voice mail to receive returned calls?

TRANSPORTER

Interested Not Interested

Dogs entering our rescue program often need to travel some distance to their new foster home. Volunteers are needed to coordinate these transports. Volunteer drivers are also required. In addition to the cost of gas, transport also requires putting a strange dog in your vehicle, so a crate or confined area is recommended. Sometimes the dog will experience motion sickness or could make a mess in your vehicle.

Are you available and accessible especially on weekends when most transports are scheduled?

Are you organized, able to map out transport legs, distances and schedule time frames?

Do you have a reliable vehicle to travel to/from transport locations?

Do you object to having a strange dog in your vehicle?
